Cold Blows the Wind

LOGLINE

When a married couple hits a jogger while driving, they think their night can't get any worse. But after heading to a remote location to bury the body, they realize their nightmare has just begun.

SYNOPSIS

Dean and Tasha's first mistake was driving drunk. Their second, hitting a jogger. Their third, driving out to a remote house to bury the body. Tensions build between them as they can't agree on anything along the way. When a mysterious visitor arrives offering not to tell anyone about the body they buried in exchange for protection, their night goes from bad to worse. Will the two of them be able to work together to make it back home? Or will the rift between them lead to even more horrific mistakes?
